Cops seek WFI chief info from 5 nations

Countries Were Sites Of Alleged Molestation

Times News Network

New Delhi: Delhi Police is learnt to have written to wrestling federations of around five countries seeking information related to allegations of sexual harassment levelled by wrestlers against the Wrestling Federation of India chief Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh. The wrestlers had alleged in the FIRs that they were harassed during tournaments in Indonesia, Bulgaria, Kyrgyzstan, Mongolia and Kazakhstan.

In these overseas notices, police have sought assistance like photos and videos of the tournament and footage of CCTV cameras installed at the tournament venues and at the places of stay of the athletes. These details, however, may not arrive before June 15, the date by which they have to file a chargesheet in court. It is likely, therefore, that police will file a supplementary chargesheet with details from abroad.

Police commissioner Sanjay Arora held a review meeting on Monday with special commissioner Sagarpreet Hooda and DCPs Pranav Tayal and Manishi Chandra.

The police chief was reportedly briefed about the statements of some witnesses corroborating the athletes' allegations while a few denied witnessing the actual misdemeanours but confirmed other details. Many of those who were present around the alleged scenes of crime have apparently also confirmed Singh's claims that he was not present at these locations on a few dates.

In the allegations of harassment in Bulgaria, the wrestler has claimed that when she responded to Singh's summons, he pulled up her T-shirt and slid his hand down the stomach pretending to be checking her breath rate. Another wrestler claimed that in Kazakhstan she was forcefully hugged without her consent. One wrestler mentioned an event in Kyrgyzstan accusing Singh of watching her stretching on a mat and then pulling at her T-shirt, placing his hand on her body and sliding it down her stomach again on the pretext of checking the breath rate.

There was a similar complaint about an event in Mongolia, where the wrestler alleged she was touched inappropriately on her rear, something had left her stunned. One of the wrestlers mentioned an incident in Indonesia, when the accused molested and groped her when she was seated at a table.

The woman athlete alleged that he slid his hand down her stomach a couple of times. The wrestler further claimed that she was also subject to misbehaviour and inappropriately touched twice in the office of the federation.

Nagpur man, three from Delhi drown in Ganga at Rishikesh

MS Nawaz | TNN

Haridwar: Four persons, including a Nagpur resident, drowned in the Ganga river at Rishikesh in three separate incidents on Sunday. Police have recovered two bodies while search is underway for the other two.

According to SHO (Lakshman Jhula) Vinod Gusain, the first incident involved a group of five tourists from Patel Nagar area in Delhi, who reached Rishikesh on Sunday. Two persons from the group drowned while bathing in the river. They jumped into the Chila Shakti canal where, Chandra Shekhar (40), who worked as a driver for a private company in Delhi, and Anil Kumar (28), resident of Patel Nagar, Delhi, who worked as supervisor in a private company, drowned.

"Divers fished out Chandra Shekhar's body, while Kumar is still missing," Gusain said.

In the second incident, a student of ITI in Delhi, identified by his first name, Abhishek (20), a resident of Nangloi in Delhi, drowned after he was swept away while bathing in the Ganga at Triveni Ghat, under Rishikesh police station. His friends jumped into the river to save him but they were also swept away. However, they were rescued in time. Abhishek's body was brought out of the river on Sunday.

Meanwhile, 48-year-old man Shekher Barskar from Ramtek, Nagpur, who served at an ashram there, drowned in the river near Brahmpuri on Sunday while bathing. Search is on for his body.

B'luru trader attacks Dutch YouTuber, held

Bengaluru: A Dutch national and YouTuber touring Bengaluru was attacked by a trader at Chor Bazaar in Sultanpet, City Market, in March this year. The Dutchman, Madly Rover, uploaded a video of the assault on YouTube on Sunday and the same has gone viral since.

The accused trader, Nawab Hayat, was arrested Monday, reports Rajiv Kalkod. The harassment took place when Rover was making videos. Nawab was released on bail.

Visa denial row: China orders last Indian journalist to leave country

The last Indian journalist in China has been asked to leave even as Beijing and New Delhi eject each other's reporters in a tit-for-tat row deepening a rift between the two countries.

Chinese authorities have instructed the PTI reporter to leave the country this month, as per a source. His departure will wipe India's media presence from China at a moment of deteriorating ties.

Indian media outlets had four reporters in China earlier this year. The Hindustan Times reporter left over the weekend while two others from Prasar Bharati and The Hindu were denied visa renewals in China in April.

China has gone from having 14 journalists in India in 2020 to a single reporter, Chinese foreign ministry spokesman Wang Wenbin said Monday. "India still hasn't approved a visa extension of the only remaining Chinese journalist in India," Wang said.

Indian officials said the visa spat began over Indian journalists hiring assistants in China to help with reporting. Beijing imposed measures limiting employment to three individuals at a time who must come from a pool provided by authorities, they said. India doesn't have a cap on hiring. Wang on Monday said India started issuing short-term visas to Chinese journalists in 2020. AGENCIES

Thrown off auto, girl dies at hosp

Gaya: A minor girl, who had sustained multiple injuries after allegedly being thrown out of a running autorickshaw, succumbed during treatment at Anugrah Narayan Magadh Medical College and Hospital here on Monday. The incident took place on Sunday. A miscreant dragged the girl into the vehicle and tried to molest her. When the girl raised an alarm, the miscreant threw her out. TNN
