Human Rights Commission of Pakistan said it was concerned about the scope for institutions to manipulate the electoral process.

Mr. Khan's ouster as Prime Minister in April last year sparked months of political drama, with a defiant campaign against the powerful military culminating in a major crackdown on his Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf party. The country is struggling through a biting economic downturn, with business leaders crying out for authorities to bring political stability to the cash-strapped nation which has seen a record devaluation of the rupee and soaring inflation.

Armenia decries Azerbaijan violence

Armenia warned the United Nations on Thursday that Azerbaijan was carrying out "ethnic cleansing" and committing a "crime against humanity" as it regained control of the breakaway Nagorno-Karabakh region.

His comments came as Armenian separatists from the disputed territory joined peace talks with Azerbaijan, after agreeing to lay down their arms.
