1. Heard.
2. Learned counsel for the respective parties have invited our attention to the development taken place during the pendency of this Writ Petition. Respondent No.1 now has filed an application before the MPID Court for taking the application of respondent No.1 on record and pass appropriate orders in the matter. In this application, the petitioners can also appear before the MPID, Court and put up their respective claims. Thus, this subsequent development serves the purposes of this Writ Petition, and therefore, this Writ Petition is disposed of for having served its purposes. Liberty is granted to the parties to put up their respective cases before the MPID Court. All questions are kept open. No costs.
