

police. He was the CM four times and was one of the most regular members in attendance (he won the best MLA award in 2019).

"This is my last speech; I will never step into this House any more after this budget session as I have decided not to contest the upcoming election. So, this is not the last speech," Kageri said.

Opposition members, including Priyank Kharge (Congress) and Shivalinge Gowda (JDS), urged Yediyurappa to change his decision and contest the elections, insisting the House needs veterans like him.
