Appeal No. 6178 of 2024

Joy Deep Saha	:	Appellant
	Vs
CPIO, SEBI, Mumbai	:	Respondent

ORDER

1. The appellant had filed an application dated September 15, 2024 (received by the respondent through RTI MIS Portal) under the Right to Information Act, 2005 ("RTI Act"). The respondent, by a letter dated September 24, 2024 responded to the application filed by the appellant. The appellant filed an appeal (Reg.No. SEBIH/A/E/24/00231) dated September 25, 2024. I have carefully considered the application, the response and the appeal and find that the matter can be decided based on the material available on record.
2. Request in the application - The appellant, vide his application dated September 15, 2024, sought the following information

"Please provide the month-wise count of technical glitches reported by Trading Members with Internet Based Trading (IBT) Licenses from May 2024 to the present date or the end of August."
3. Reply of the Respondent - The respondent, in response to the request informed that as per SEBI circular dated November 25, 2022, on "framework to address the technical glitches in stock brokers' electronic trading systems", stock exchanges are required to disseminate on their websites, the instances of technical glitches occurred in the trading system of stock brokers. Further, the respondent informed that the said information/data is available on the websites of stock exchanges. The respondent also provided in his reply the web links displaying the information on technical glitches at BSE, NSE, MCX and NCDX.

4. Ground of appeal - On perusal of the appeal, it appears that the appellant is not satisfied with the response provided by the respondent.
5. I have perused the aforesaid request and the response provided thereto. On consideration, I find that the respondent has adequately addressed the said request by providing the information available with him. Accordingly, I do not find any deficiency in the response of the respondent.
6. In view of the above observations, I find that there is no need to interfere with the decision of the respondent. The Appeal is accordingly dismissed.
