Appeal No. 5041 of 2022

Prerit Misra	:	Appellant
	Vs
CPIO, SEBI, Mumbai	:	Respondent

ORDER

1. The appellant had filed an application dated April 23, 2022 (received by the respondent through RTI MIS Portal) under the Right to Information Act, 2005 (“RTI Act”). The respondent, by a letter dated May 12, 2022, responded to the application filed by the appellant. The appellant filed an appeal dated May 12, 2022. I have carefully considered the application, the response and the appeal and find that the matter can be decided based on the material available on record.
2. Ground of appeal- The appellant has filed the appeal on the ground that access to the requested information was refused. The appellant, in his appeal, submitted that the requested information is valid and intended for public purposes. In view of the submissions made by the appellant, I am dealing with the queries and the response provided thereto, in the following paragraphs.
3. Query number 1 –The appellant, vide query number 1 of his application, inter alia, sought the amendments to SCORES FAQs from January 2018 onwards.
4. The respondent, in response to the aforesaid query, informed that the query sought by the appellant have already been replied vide CPIO letter dated February 11, 2022 in response to the appellant’s RTI application dated January 27, 2022.
5. I have perused the aforesaid query and the response provided thereto. I note that the appellant had raised similar queries vide his applications dated December 01, 2021 and January 27, 2022. Further, the respondent, vide response dated December 13, 2021 and February 11, 2022, had provided information regarding FAQs being updated from time to time. I note that the respondent, in his response dated May 12, 2022, referred to his response dated February 11, 2022, which dealt with the similar query. Further, this forum has also dealt with the similar query in the order dated March 15, 2022 passed in Appeal No. 4670 of 2022. In view of the same, I find that the respondent has addressed the query by providing the information available with him. Accordingly, no further intervention is warranted at this stage.

6. Query number 2 –The appellant, vide query number 2 of his application, sought a list of all emails in SEBI to which his email has been blocked.
7. In response to the aforesaid query, the respondent informed that the query has already been replied vide CPIO letter dated February 15, 2022 in response to the appellant's RTI Application dated January 27, 2022. The respondent also informed that there are no further comments to offer.
8. I have perused query number 2 and the response provided thereto. I note that the respondent has previously responded to an identical query raised by the appellant vide his application dated January 27, 2022. Further, this forum has also dealt with the said query in the order dated March 15, 2022 passed in Appeal No. 4669 of 2022. In view of the same, I find that the respondent has adequately addressed the query by providing the information available with him. Accordingly, I do not find any deficiency in the response.
9. In view of the above observations, I find that there is no need to interfere with the decision of the respondent. The Appeal is accordingly dismissed.
