Appeal No. 5166 of 2022

Aashish Hissaria	:	Appellant
	Vs
CPIO, SEBI, Mumbai	:	Respondent

ORDER

1. The appellant had filed an application dated June 14, 2022 (received by the respondent through RTI MIS Portal) under the Right to Information Act, 2005 (“RTI Act”). The respondent, by a letter dated June 24, 2022, responded to the application filed by the appellant. The appellant filed an appeal (Reg. No. SEBIH/A/E/22/00434) dated July 01, 2022. I have carefully considered the application, the response and the appeal and find that the matter can be decided based on the material available on record.
2. Queries in the application –The appellant, in his application dated June 14, 2022, stated that he had done Post graduation diploma in Banking and Finance from Manipal University, which is a one year course. The appellant, inter alia, queried whether he is eligible for SEBI Grade A Examination or not.
3. The respondent, in response to the aforesaid query, informed that the query is in the nature of seeking clarification/opinion and accordingly, the same cannot be construed as seeking “information”, as defined under section 2(f) of the RTI Act.
4. Ground of appeal- The appellant has filed the appeal on the ground that the information provided was incomplete, misleading or false. The appellant, in his appeal, reiterated the query raised in his application.
5. I have perused the query and the response provided thereto. On consideration, I find that the query of the appellant is in the nature of seeking clarification/opinion from the respondent. I note that the respondent is not supposed to create information; or to interpret information; or to furnish clarification to the appellant under the ambit of the RTI Act. In this context, reference is made to the matter of Vineet Pandey vs. CPIO, United India Insurance Company Limited (Judgment dated January 21, 2021), wherein similar observations were made by the Hon’ble CIC. Further, in the matter of Shri Shantaram Walavalkar vs. CPIO, SEBI (Decision dated January 17, 2013), I note that the Hon’ble CIC held: “... we would also like to observe that, under the Right to Information (RTI) Act, the citizen has the responsibility to specify the exact information he wants; he is not supposed to seek any opinion or comments or clarifications or interpretations from the CPIO...". In view of these observations, I find that the said query cannot be construed as seeking 'information' as defined under section 2 (f) of the RTI Act. Consequently, the respondent did not have an obligation to provide such clarification or opinion under the RTI Act. Accordingly, I do not find any deficiency in the response.

6. In view of the above observations, I find that there is no need to interfere with the decision of the respondent. The Appeal is accordingly dismissed.
