On call no one appeared. It appears from the record that on 05.03.2019, both the parties were directed to appear otherwise proper order shall be passed. It has also been observed in the order that both the parties have been absent regularly which shows that parties have got no interest in this case. But it appears that even after observation as stated above both the parties did not change their conduct and did not appear. Ultimately we consider to dismiss this case on account of disinterestedness by the parties as above and accordingly, this complaint case stands dismissed.
