Appeal No. 5011 of 2022

Sutrave Sanjeev	:	Appellant
	Vs
CPIO, SEBI, Mumbai	:	Respondent

ORDER

1. The appellant had filed an application dated March 30, 2022 (received by the respondent through RTI MIS Portal) under the Right to Information Act, 2005 (“RTI Act”). The respondent, by a letter dated April 21, 2022, responded to the application filed by the appellant. The appellant filed an appeal dated April 28, 2022. I have carefully considered the application, the response and the appeal and find that the matter can be decided based on the material available on record.
2. Queries in the application –The appellant, vide his application dated March 30, 2022, inter alia, sought the action history of his complaint pertaining to Yash Trading Academy.
3. The respondent, in response to the query, informed that the appellant’s complaint has been received by SEBI and the same is under examination. The respondent also informed that if any regulatory action is taken by SEBI, the same would be available on the SEBI website, which is in public domain.
4. Ground of appeal- The appellant has filed the appeal on the ground that information provided was incomplete, misleading or false. The appellant, in his appeal, reiterated that he had lodged a complaint against the unregistered entity. The appellant again sought information with respect to action taken in the matter.
5. I have perused the query and the response provided thereto. On consideration, I find that the respondent has adequately addressed the query by providing the information available with him. Further, I note that information regarding any regulatory action taken by SEBI would be available on the website of SEBI. Accordingly, I do not find any deficiency in the response.

6. In view of the above observations, I find that there is no need to interfere with the decision of the respondent. The Appeal is accordingly dismissed.
