stock broker, etc. For such transfer of funds, stock broker shall maintain daily reconciliation statement clearly indicating the amount of funds transferred.”

- iii. As on January 31, 2019, there are client payables amounting to INR 138.78 crore against which funds of only INR 44.36 crore are available in the bank / clearing member / clearing corporation and exchange. Thus, AFSPL has shortage of INR 94.42 crore payable to the clients as on January 31, 2019.

S. No	Particular	Amount (in INR Crore)
1	Creditors Payable-A	138.78
2	Deposits available with IL&FS Securities Services Ltd (ISSL) (Clearing member)	42.42
3	Amount available with Exchange	1.1
4	Bank balance	0.86
5	Total Funds available-B	44.36
	Non-Availability of funds(A-B)	94.42

- iv. The detailed findings in this regard are given in Point 11 of FAR.
- v. On verification of weekly data submitted by AFSPL as on Nov 30, 2018, it is observed that there is shortage in client's funds with AFSPL to the extent of INR 93.46 crore.
- vi. AFSPL has wrongfully reported the details of collateral which is stated to have been deposited with clearing member/ clearing corporation in form of cash and cash equivalents. It is observed that AFSPL has inappropriately and incorrectly included mutual funds amounting to INR 342 crore which are third party mutual funds.
- vii. The detailed findings in this regard are given in NSE-IR.

Thus, it is alleged that AFSPL has a shortage of INR 94.42 crore as on January 31, 2019 and of INR 93.46 crore as on November 30, 2018 payable to the clients.

Thus, based on the analysis above, it is alleged that AFSPL has misappropriated client funds and thus violated SEBI Circular no. SMD/SED/CIR/93/23321 dated November 18, 1993 and SEBI Circular no. SEBI/HO/MIRSD/MIRSD2/CIR/P/2016/95 dated September 26, 2016.

The Circular also provides that "Transfer of securities between "Name of the Stock Broker - Client Account" and individual client's BO account, "Name of the Stock Broker - Pool Account" and "Name of the Stock Broker - Collateral Account" is permitted. Transfer of securities between "Name of the Stock Broker - Client Account" to "Name of the Stock Broker - Proprietary Account" is permitted only for legitimate purposes such as, implementation of any Government/Regulatory directions or orders, in case of erroneous transfers pertaining to client's securities, for meeting legitimate dues of the stock broker, etc. For such transfer of securities, stock broker shall maintain a stock transfer register clearly indicating the day-wise details of securities transferred."
- iii. As on January 31, 2019, securities amounting to INR 0.34 crore are not available either in DP account or with Clearing Member. Further, securities amounting to INR 0.35 crore which are reflected in the DP account of AFSPL are not found to have been recorded in the register of securities.

iv. The detailed findings in this regard are given in NSE-IR.

Thus, it is alleged that client securities have been misappropriated by AFSPL to the extent of INR 0.69 crore.

iv. The detailed findings in this regard are given in NSE-IR.

Thus, it is alleged that AFSPL has failed to settled funds and securities of clients amounting to INR 37.48 crore during the financial year 2017-18.

Hence, based on the analysis above, it is alleged that AFSPL has not settled funds and securities of clients and thus violated SEBI Circular no. SEBI/MIRSD/SE/Cir-19/2009 dated December 03, 2009 and SEBI Circular no. SEBI/HO/MIRSD/MIRSD2/CIR/P/2016/95 dated September 26, 2016.

No payment for transactions in which the Member broker is taking a position as a principal will be allowed to be made from the client's account. The above principles and the circumstances under which transfer from client's account to Member broker's account would be allowed are enumerated below.

A] Member Broker to keep Accounts: Every member broker shall keep such books of accounts, as will be necessary, to show and distinguish in connection with his business as a member -

- i. Moneys received from or on account of each of his clients and,*
- ii. the moneys received and the moneys paid on Member's own account.*

B] Obligation to pay money into "clients accounts". Every member broker who holds or receives money on account of a client shall forthwith pay such money to current or deposit account at bank to be kept in the name of the member in the title of which the word "clients" shall appear (hereinafter referred to as "clients account"). Member broker may keep one consolidated clients account for all the clients or accounts in the name of each client, as he thinks fit: Provided that when a Member broker receives a cheque or draft representing in part money belonging to the client and in part money due to the Member, he shall pay the whole of such cheque or draft into the clients account and effect subsequent transfer as laid down below in para D (ii).

C] What moneys to be paid into "clients account". No money shall be paid into clients account other than - ("ISSL") towards trade obligations of these three associated concerns.

(b) Client: The clients of AFSPL viz. Money Mishra Financial Services and Awanish Kumar Mishra have received the mutual funds units from another client of the member viz. Novjoy Emporium Private Limited through one non-related entity viz. M/s Digi locker, a partnership firm of Mr. Pankaj Garg and Mr. Jitender Malhotra. 	Total		89.02%

- v. The detailed findings in this regard are given in NSE-IR.

Thus, it is alleged that AFSPL has dealt with securities/mutual funds belonging to third parties/clients in an unauthorised manner through Noticees no. 4-6 and thus failed to act with due skill, care and diligence in the conduct of its business.

- vi. 44 clients of AFSPL had submitted their complaints regarding return of their credit balance lying with AFSPL. On verification of bank books and client ledgers maintained by AFSPL, it is observed that AFSPL has made payments amounting to INR 19.55 crores during the period April 1, 2017 to February 18, 2019 from client bank account to these registered 44 clients at regular intervals (normally monthly). These payments are in co-relation to the credit balances of securities/funds that are available in the books of the AFSPL. monthly payments were being made to the clients although no sufficient profits from trading activity.

vii. The detailed findings in this regard are given in Point 8 of FAR.

10. Section 27 of SEBI Act, 1992 provides that “Where a contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or any rule, regulation, direction or order made thereunder has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the contravention was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the contravention and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly: Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the contravention was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such contravention.”
