It is stated by the learned Attorney General that during the pendency of the appeal, the sole respondent has died. Therefore, the appeal is to be dismissed as having been abated.

However, it would be necessary to pass an order with regard to the costs of 1 lakh awarded to the respondent. In our opinion, the imposition of costs was not warranted. Consequently, the impugned order is modified to that extent and the appellant will not be required to deposit the costs.

The appeal is dismissed as having abated. However, all the questions of law which are raised in this appeal are kept open.
